ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 3.—(INS)—The Ethiopian government today announced officially that the city of Adowa is under aerial bombardment.

Another battle is in progress at Agami, the announcement said.

This historic announcement followed by a few hours issuance of Emperor Haile Selassie's formal, public nation-wide mobilization decree.

Accepting Il Duce's challenge, the Lion of Judah told Ethiopia to get ready to fight, told the world that Ethiopia is guiltless, and told the League of Nations that now is the time to intervene.

The mobilization was decreed before 100 journalists and photographers, and 10,000 spear-bearing, sword-brandishing warriors.

An ancient, coal-black bearded giant tomb-tomed a slow beat of 20 to a minute on a kettle drum a yard in diameter.

The government telegraphed the League appealing against the attacks at Adowa, Adigrat, and Agame. All these points are in the northern part of Ethiopia, from 10 to 15 miles south of the Eritrean frontier and due south of Asmara, main Italian base.

Adowa is the scene of Italy's humiliating defeat by Ethiopians in 1896—a defeat Italy is determined to avenge. Adigrat is about 40 miles due East, and Agame is half way between them. Thus the Italians were advancing along a 40-mile front in this sector.

Addis Ababa was in a panic, expecting aerial bombardment hourly.

Panic stricken citizens were fleeing to the hills.

"Numerous civilian casualties, especially women and children," fell at Adowa and Adigrat, said a government communique.

There also was a great material destruction, the communique said.

The Italian consul at Adowa, who had attempted to escape to Eritrea on Tuesday, was arrested at the border by Ethiopian guards and brought back to Adowa.

Orders were issued to bring him on to Addis Ababa, but meanwhile he would be at the mercy of the invading Italian bombers. He will not be deported.

It was expected Count Luigi Vinciguini, Italian Minister, would be handed his passport today and taken to Djibouti, French Somaliland, tomorrow.

An air raid on Addis Ababa was feared momentarily.

The Emperor failed to appear as the mobilization decree was read by the court chamberlain. It was greeted first by a dead silence, and then by three bursts of slow hand-claps from the 10,000.

After reading of the proclamation the thousands of warriors drew their swords and rushed the stairs, where Europeans were standing.

War Started Today

By International News Service
The long-planned war between Italy and Ethiopia began today.

Italian land and air forces, led by Count Ciano, Premier Mus-solini's son-in-law, invaded Ethiopia from Asmara, attacking Adowa, Agame and Adigrat with an aerial bombardment.

The Ethiopian government reported many casualties, including women and children, in the bombing of the three towns, situated along a 40-mile front about 15 miles south of the Eritrean border.

Both Ethiopia and Italy notified the League of Nations of the Italian push, and Geneva also heard reports the Italians had begun a drive northward from Italian Somaliland, attacking the province of Ogaden, in southern Ethiopia.

Emperor Haile Selassie announced formal mobilization of his country, and prepared to resist the invasion.

The League of Nations Council has called a meeting for 10.30 a. m. Saturday to consider the crises and possibly to rush steps toward application of sanctions.

The Italian government today admitted its East African forces had invaded Ethiopia.

The Italian East African command has been instructed to occupy advanced positions outside the Italian lines, it was stated in an official communique.

The move was taken, the communique said, as a consequence of a "constant Ethiopian menace" to Italy's East African colonies.

Announcement followed by several hours' dispatches from the Italian colonies themselves, Ethiopia, and Geneva revealing the long planned, carefully-plotted Italo-Ethiopian war finally was on.

ITALIAN TROOPS START INVASION BEFORE SUNRISE

Advance Opens With Heavy Cannonading From The Advance Artillery

PRISONERS ARE TAKEN

Whistles, Bells, Cheering Celebrate Actual Beginning of Fight

With Italian General Headquarters in the Field, Oct. 3.—(INS)—Italian troops invaded Ethiopia shortly before sunrise this morning.

By noon troops and native forces had crossed the Mairib River in four places.

The advance opened with a barrage of heavy cannonading from advance artillery positions.

Eight-inch long-range shells awoke the rocky walls of the mountain canyons north of Adowa and Adigrat.

Italian bombing planes flew high above both these thickly populated Abyssinian towns.

Mussolini's own son-in-law, Count Galeazzo Ciano, personally led his flying squadron "In Desperate," composed of nine Caproni heavy bombers, on a mission of destruction north of Adowa and Adigrat.

The first field wireless messages passed from the invading troops reported no resistance at the crossing of the river.

Bombing from the air and heavy shells from long range guns are shattering the Abyssinian silence and throwing great pieces of mud and the like into the air.

Mussolini's two sons are each piloting a bomber of the squadron which now is on its mission in the Emperor's hinterland.

Long columns of marching, blackshirted Fascist troops marched as the flying squadrons roared overhead in green, red and white color.

Italian troops from the general headquarters, Thursday, successfully crossed the River Mareb and are well into Ethiopia.

More columns on foot and mounted are following the advancing troops in order to consolidate the gains made.

The infantry advance was covered in crossing the river by a high-speed charge of light tanks and heavy calibre guns spitting out a terrific barrage over the heads of the covering troops.

Later on the Italian attackers from Mareb came back to the rear escorting a group of terrified frightened women, children, and Ethiopian prisoners.

I returned to Asmara at 4:00 a. m.
Thursday to witness a tremendous demonstration in favor of the Italian advance into Ethiopia.

Whistles, bells, and a terrific din of cheering mixed with searchlights reaching like fingers into the Ethiopian sky, celebrated the actual beginning of the fighting.

Fifteen hundred blocked the street in front of the general commander's headquarters, yelling and shouting:
"On to the frontiers! On to avenge Aloa!"

They took one of the commanders and carried him shoulder high.

They demanded the presence of Gen.
Emilio Do Bono, but were informed he already had gone to the front to lead the advance and could not appear.

The city was plunged into darkness in the midst of this demonstration to safeguard itself against a possible surprise attack by the Ethiopian air force, but despite this the celebration of blacks and whites continued with yelling and cheering.

"Long live Il Duce!" they cried. "On to the frontiers! Lead us on the way!"

WOMAN HAS CLOSE ESCAPE FROM DEATH AS HER AUTO STALLS ON R. R. TRACKS; MRS. JOHN EWERS NOT SERIOUSLY HURT

Car Demolished and Carried 70 Feet — Passenger Picks Up Woman, Thinking Her Dead—Found To Be Suffering From Shock, Lacerations, Contusions — Believe She Became Confused

(SPECIAL TO COURIER)

DOYLESTOWN, Oct. 3.—A woman, Mrs. Mary E. Ewers, 68, wife of John Ewers, Forest Grove, miraculously escaped death this morning when the motor of her car stalled on the Upper Forest Grove Road crossing of the Reading Railroad at Buckingham Valley station.

Mrs. Ewers had taken her husband, a carpenter, to work, and was returning to her home when the accident occurred.

The Ewers car was struck by a northbound Reading train bound for New Hope. It was a two car gasoline propelled, express train, not stopping at Buckingham Valley. John Pursell, New Hope, engineer, said he blew the whistle loud and long and believed the woman became confused and stalled the motor of her car.

The train struck the coupe on the left front and carried it 70 feet. The car was demolished, and Mrs. Ewers was thrown out onto the bank along the side of the rails. The train was stopped within a distance of 190 feet.

Peter McKeown, Jr., Buckingham Valley, picked up Mrs.
Ewers, thinking she was dead. She was brought to the Emergency Hospital, here, a distance of seven miles, where it was found she was suffering only from shock, lacerations of the scalp and multiple contusions of the body. Her condition is not regarded as serious.

Fell Tree Which Caused Death of Three Recently

The large tree on the sharp curve West of Morrisville, route 13, which during the past few months caused the death of three people, has been removed.

The tree was felled a few days ago, and the limbs and trunk split for use as firewood.

Residents of Bucks County are much pleased at the action taken, as many other motorists failing to make the curve have been injured when their machines struck this tree.

HOLD PUBLIC HEARING OF MORRISVILLE BRIDGE

Borough Objects To Paying Property Damages As Now Proposed

TRY TO SAVE R. R. SPUR

MORRISVILLE, Oct. 3.—Upon orders from the Pennsylvania Public Service Commission, a hearing of the proposed elimination of the canal bridge on the Lincoln Highway, just west of Pennsylvania avenue, was held here this afternoon with engineers from the borough, State Highway Department, Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the County of Bucks in attendance.

When the office of the marriage license bureau opened in the Court House Tuesday, the first application under the new law was on the clerk's desk. It came from Justice of the Peace James Guy, of Bristol, and was made for Albert Giagnacova, 22, of 310 Brooks street, Bristol, and Nancy DiMoia, 21, of 420 Logan street, Bristol.

There is a legal question involved now about what a three-day period really means. Philadelphia courts, it was reported today, will not count the day the application was received but will start the day following receipt of the application. In Bucks county, a legal decision is being sought today since some are of the opinion that under the new law the day of receipt of the application can be counted in the three day grace period.

One thing is certain, not a single marriage will be performed in Bucks county or anywhere else in Pennsylvania before Friday of this week, under the new law, with one exception. Under special permission from the county court, a license may be granted if the reasons are sufficient for the advance grant of the license.
Marrying throughout Pennsylvania will have a three-day grace starting today.

More than 70 per cent. of the 243 couples granted marriage licenses in Bucks county, the docket shows. Exactly 122 of the applicants came from

The whole trouble as voiced today is the railway spur which is located in the bed of the canal and runs under the present bridge. This is used to supply coal to a local dealer. The railroad company and canal company are endeavoring to save this spur and in order to do this it will be necessary to lower the tracks some distance and then elevate the roadway over the canal so that coal cars can pass under the street. This will mean that West Bridge street will be elevated with the grade starting at Pennsylvania avenue and gradually rising to a point of about four and a half feet at the canal. This will mean a retaining wall in front of some of the properties on West Bridge street, between Pennsylvania avenue and the canal, and will involve heavy property damages.

The State Highway Department is also insisting that the roadway be widened and if this plan is carried out it will also mean additional property damages as a number of buildings will either have to be moved back or the fronts cut off. The matter will be studied further when it is hoped that the property damage element will be placed somewhere other than on the borough. The local officials insist that the borough will positively not assume the property damages, because it is not the fault of the borough that the street cannot be built on a level grade without the elevations.

TO MEET IN LEGION HOME

The meeting of canvassers for the Bristol District in the annual campaign of the Boy Scouts of Bucks County, which is to be held this evening at eight o'clock, will be held at the American Legion Home, instead of as previously planned. All interested are urged to attend.

Dr. Josiah Sleeper Will Address Service Clubs

The speaker at the joint meeting of the Exchange and Rotary Clubs of Bristol, which will be held this evening at 6.15 at the Elks Home, Radcliffe street, will be Dr. Josiah Sleeper, Chester.

Dr. Sleeper has long been identified with many civic activities in Chester and is an outstanding speaker. Dr.
Sleeper is head of the Sleeper Business College of Chester. The Rotary Club of Chester, of which he has been the secretary for 18 years, has made outstanding contributions to welfare work among delinquent boys, and at present sponsors a Community Center where boys are organized and given many opportunities to help themselves advance.

The Rotary Club will be host this month to the Exchange Club at this, the first of a series of regular monthly meetings.

WHERE FOOD DOLLAR GOES

When the hog as well as the cow jumps over the moon, a sport at which the consumer does not laugh at all no matter what the little dog may do, the food dollar becomes an article of increasing importance. When the consumer spends it he naturally asks, "Where does it go?"

According to federal figures, 55 cents of every urban dollar spent in August for ten basic foods—beef, pork, chickens, butter, cheese, potatoes, flour, bread, eggs and milk—went to the processors, transportation agencies, wholesalers, retailers and other distributors. The same group received 58 cents of the food dollar in July, 57 cents in June, 56 cents in May and 54 cents in April. The April figure marked their smallest share in four years.

Although prices for pork have risen sharply since the summer of 1934, the processors, distributors and handlers have taken in this period a decreasingly small part of the consumer's pork dollar. On August they took 30 cents, the smallest margin in nearly eight years. Last April they took 38 cents and in August a year ago they took 53.4 cents.

Government statisticians compute total processing, transportation and distributing costs by deducting farm prices from retail prices. They point out that prices paid the farmer today and the prices paid by the consumer today are not always comparable because many products do not immediately go into consumption.

These studies of food prices are being made by the department of commerce in an effort to lower the costs of taking food from the farm to the consumer.

THIS CHANGING WORLD

Some say it is still a man's world; others, that it has passed to the distaff side of the family. At any rate, it has changed considerably since woman began to assert her claim for at least a half interest.

Let Chicago be called to the witness stand first. Judge Rudolph Desort says alimony laws apply to women as much as they do to men in the midwestern metropolis. And with this piece of information for the world in general and for Mrs. Anna Sunde specifically, the court ordered Mrs. Sunde to produce $75 within 24 hours as a payment on $267 of alimony arrears which her blind husband charges she owes him.

"You had better have the $75," the court added. "I send men to jail for such things. Women wanted equal rights. I'll send a woman to jail for the same thing."

Perhaps the court did not add to the judicial reputation for wisdom by that remark. Still, who knows? Maybe courts have to be hardboiled nowadays when women as well as men get behind in their alimony payments.

Sally Rand can dress up to play in the legitimate; we still have our memories.

The lack of a suitable battleground is in the way of another European war, says one analyst. Has the League's greens committee any suggestion?

The New York Anti-Noise League would eliminate the racket of riveting. Could we not have just a little now and then, in memory of 1928?

There's one thing more than any other that will put you in a position to greet winter weather with a carefree chuckle. It's a binful of Koppers Coke—the fuel that gives you summer warmth regardless of the outdoor temperature. It's the extra heat in Koppers Coke that does it. Extra heat to reach out to every corner of your house. Extra heat to come up with a rush on cold mornings.

You'll be pleased at the time and trouble that Koppers Coke can save you. This modern, sootless fuel takes less attention—fewer trips up and down basement stairs. You shake it less. Take out ashes far less often because it leaves very little ash.

Why not enjoy this winter? A ton of Koppers Coke will start you right.

OUR GUARANTEE:

If practical demonstration by our representative in your home does not convince you that Koppers Coke is the best and most satisfactory fuel, we will remove the coke from your basement and refund your money for the amount removed.

FLUSH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes may need flushing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste, poisonous matter may develop, causing serious trouble. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, which have been used successfully by millions of people for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to flush out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes. Get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist.

"MY FAVORITE DISH --and-- HOW I PREPARE IT!"

—BY—
MRS. LEO L. LYNN
EDGELY, PA.

Five ingredients are required in my favorite dish, which is macaroni and cheese fonda.

It will certainly prove popular with those who are fond of macaroni, as the macaroni and cheese combination is warmly welcomed by practically all lovers of macaroni.

The five ingredients are:
2 cups cooked macaroni 4 eggs
1 teaspoonful salt
2 cups grated cheese 1 cup hot water.

The method of preparation calls for the beating of the egg yolks until light. Then add the macaroni, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs; add the other ingredients.

Next brush a baking dish with butter, place the mixture therein, and bake for 40 minutes in a moderate oven.

Robert Hagan, Sr., Los Angeles, Cal., has been paying a week's visit to his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hagan, Jr., Jackson street.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mershon, 200 Otter street, over Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. William Bradford, Fallsington.

Under this were three large umbrellas filled with gifts from the members of the Circle. Refreshments were served. ROOT SELECTED AS MOUND MAN TODAY

By Davis J. Walsh
(I. N. S. Sports Editor)

DETROIT, Oct. 3.—(INS)—Forty-eight thousand people, the durable Dances of the profession, will be back at Navin Field today for the second game of the World Series between the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago Cubs, utterly oblivious and unimpressed by the fact that the Cubs looked to be twice the better ball club yesterday, winning 3 to 0. It's that kind of a town. They got no show yesterday, so they'll be back this afternoon with the idea that it was all a big mistake. Men buy oil stocks on much the same principle.

Briefly, I'm beginning to feel that it is easier to lick the Detroit ball clubs than it is to lick the Detroit populace. The latter is always there. The Detroit ball club sometimes isn't.

It wasn't yesterday when Lon Warneke gave a one-man show by limiting the attack to nine balls hit beyond the infield and equalling the series record with eight personal and eminently satisfactory assists. It took a comedian like Nick Altrock to establish the record in question. Maybe this idea means something. There has been nothing more comic than the efforts of the Tigers so far.

Today, however, as officially designated by Commissioner Landis, is a different day and perhaps a little pitching will instill a vestige of life in a club that yesterday seemed to be permanently extinct.

The point is that Tom Bridges might stop the Cubs today and any club that is stopped is automatically a club that ought to resign itself to the coroner. That's why the Tigers looked so desultory yesterday. There is something very essential about the art of hitting. It simply cannot be practiced unless one gets one's bat off one's shoulder. Yesterday one didn't. Neither did nine.

The pitcher to oppose Bridges is Charley Root, sturdy oak of the Chicago staff. Charles is quite a man if he gets beyond three innings. The point is that his World Series record says that he has seldom got beyond six and never as far as nine innings. Maybe the Chicago club doesn't believe in precedent. Maybe it doesn't believe in anything.

Yesterday's performance might easily label it as the iconoclasts of 1935. The gang from the gas house in St. Louis merely had physical effect in impressing the Tigers last year. This year, we have a club that could be no worse than it thinks it is, and if it continues to be as good as yesterday, it's good enough.

Actually, the Cubs probably were just a winning club going through with so many gestures and motions. But these were strictly legitimate motions to which the heads-down Tigers had no adequate rejoinder. One could easily think Joe Louis against Max Baer, a driving, buffeting badger against an oak. Perhaps we're going overboard on this point. But then, that's no novelty. We've been more than wet before. We've been saturated.

CARDINAL AND GRAY READY FOR DOYLESTOWN

By Jack Orr

"Wow! Get them!" is the cry which is sweeping over Bristol High School all this week as the Cardinal and Gray prepare to snare their second straight triumph at the expense of the Doylestown eleven on the morrow.

A surge of confidence holds the local school and every student, teacher, player, manager and coach is confident of a Bristol victory over their pet "jinx." Doylestown is on the proverbial "spot."

At yesterday's pep meeting a crowd of screaming students set the stage for a local victory as their shouts resounded again and again through the auditorium.

The nine cheer leaders presented a very neat appearance in their white outfits and Cardinal and Gray "B's." They did a very fine job, and after each cheer a loud "Wow, Get them!" hit the roof.

Every player is fighting to hold his position on the first eleven as all of the second stringers want to be part of the Cardinal and Gray machine that is to trounce Doylestown for the first time in history.

There seems to be no doubt of the outcome of the contest from Bristol's viewpoint at any rate. "Beat Doylestown" along with "Wow! Get them!" are the cheers to be found on every tongue at the local institution.

ANDALUSIA WINS

FINAL PRACTICE TONIGHT FOR ST. ANN'S ELEVEN

Final practice of the week for the St. Ann's gridirons will take place tonight in the rear of the St. Ann's club house. The "Saints" will play the Wanita Indians, Sunday, on the local gridiron.

Five new players reported to Coach "Bill" Dougherty during the week which may mean that the St. Ann's mentor may have to cut his squad through an intensive, two hour blackboard drill, but tonight on the practice field, at Pond and Fillmore streets, the team will have its final workout in preparation for the coming tilt with the Yardley Bruins on Sunday at Leedom's Field.

Injuries seem to be hampering the local eleven. Several players will rest up this week because of slight injuries but will be in shape for the contest on October 13. The injury to Nick Gallone's shoulder is not as bad as it was thought to be and it is most likely that the St. Ann's fullback will be ready for action against the fast-stepping Indians.

RECREATION CENTER TEAM OPENS SUNDAY

Due to the heavy rains on Tuesday night the Bristol Recreation Center football team was forced indoors, so Coach "Gike" Dougherty put the boys through an intensive, two hour blackboard drill, but tonight on the practice field, at Pond and Fillmore streets, the team will have its final workout in preparation for the coming tilt with the Yardley Bruins on Sunday at Leedom's Field.

Owing to the big turn out of candidates Coach Dougherty is at a loss just who his starting line-up will be, but in all probability, it will be a big charging line and a light, but fast, backfield. Thus far it looks like Eddie Roe and Bud Tulio, ends; Gunner Corrigan and Pete Choma, tackles; Gallagher and Wilson, guards; with Monica at center; Joey Roe will call the plays from quarterback place with George Dougherty himself, at left half and "Hutchey" Hutchinson at right half and "Camel" Breslin at full.

With this line-up and big squad of reserves, ready at a moment's notice the Recreation Boys seem destined to go places this season.

The management has letters out to Doylestown, Lambertville, Ambler and the Trenton Eagles and if they have the pleasure of seeing a good turn out of fans on Sunday, nothing will stand in the way of bringing the best to Bristol.

The Recreation team is going to use professional rules which will assure the local fans some wide open football, so be on hand on Sunday for the opening kick-off at 2:30 sharp.

BILLY WINN BACK IN OLD-TIME FORM

Back in his brilliant driving form, Billy Winn of Detroit, Mich., with two smashing triumphs in recent 100-mile national championship races to his credit, will be one of the big favorites to win the "century" two-man car title speed event to be staged at the Langhorne Speedway here on Sunday afternoon, October 13th.

The diminutive Mid-western sensation is the latest addition to the championship field. The Detroit speed demon now holds fifth place in the national point standings, not far behind the pace-making Kelly Pettilo, winner of the 500-mile Indianapolis classic.

Winn's fifth place rating is the result of his relief driving at Indianapolis, where he teamed with "Shorty" Cantion, to win sixth place money, together with his smashing triumphs at both Syracuse, N. Y., and Springfield, Ill.

The Mid-west speed ace, now a successful business man, has confined his racing activity this season to only eight major events. And his record for those races indicate his supremacy as a dirt track driver.

In the 100-mile national championship at Syracuse, he not only outsped such renowned drivers as Kelly Pettilo and "Wild Bill" Cummings, but he established new world's speed records for a mile track, shattering long standing marks.

Just Before the Battle

Mickey Cochrane (left), manager of the Detroit Tigers, welcomes Manager Charley Grimm of the Cubs to Detroit for the opener of the world series. But don't be deceived by those smiles.

In filing his entry for the Langhorne 100-miler, which will climax the Eastern racing season, Winn said he would drive the same Miller Special he did in his record breaking performance at Syracuse.

Built at a cost of more than $10,000 with the celebrated race car engineer, Harry E. Miller, supervising construction, the mount is the most recently built two-man car in the nation, and is rated as the fastest ever produced.

Until this year one of the most active drivers to campaign throughout the East, Winn curtailed his racing activity this season, due to business pressure, and has participated in only eight meets, all of them major events. The $5,000 money purse and points toward the national championship lured him into signing up for the Langhorne event, which will climax the Eastern racing season.
